1. OFFICER OF THE DAY 1100 hrs 28 June 1944 to 1100 hrs 29 June 1944
1ST LT ROBERT E. O'CONNOR O-1549569 1755th Ord Co.
2. LIBERTY RUN FOR ENLISTED MEN: 326th Bomb Sq (H) will furnish one officer.
3. PRISONER OF WAR FUND: Collections will be made for the Prisoner of War Fund on Payday, the 30th. The same procedure as previous will be used; officers placing their donations in the collection box at the Finance Office, enlisted men contributing at the paytables. This month we will need only £200 because of the £492 contributed last month. However, should we go over £200, the excess will be put towards the amount which will be needed in July. Let's remember those boys over there.
4. THE NIGHT LINE MESS: The night line mess was established for the sole purpose of providing food and hot coffee for men working at night. The practice of using this mess as a snack bar when returning from town will be discontinued immediately. No one dressed in Class "A" uniform will be served in the night line mess.
