4. ATTENTION ALL PERSONNEL: On the occasion of the Second Anniversary of this Group, I wish to express my personal appreciation to all personnel for the magnificent job you have done--often under the most difficult and disheartening conditions.

We are now the oldest group in the ETO and are approaching our 100th Combat Mission. Our war record is one of the best in the entire Eighth Air Force....this in spite of the fact that shortly after our arrival in England, the organization was practically dissolved and actually lost its identity.

To those veterans who have been with us since MacDill Field, my thanks for refusing to quit--and to those who have joined us from time to time since then, my appreciation for the way you have carried on.

Hope we can all celebrate the next one in the States.

William M. Reid
WILLIAM M. REID, Colonel, AC, Comdg.
